and be consisted if it were strictly true. I forms her especially againfur of the patient's health, which she assured me had been the case for the list three years from the time she had been cured by the use of Swaim's Panaces.

The horid ravages made by the lower extremities present an appear ance which beggars description, that disease in any form could make anch inroads on the human system without producing death, is as astonishing as it is wonderful. She informs me that in June, 1818. a tumor formed immediately below the knee, which was extremely painful, the uncasiness and swelling of it caused her so much swelling of it caused her so much sellarm, that she applied to a medical agreement of the court that the said sellarm, that she applied to a medical will have corroding ulcers—Afedical skill was entirely unavailing to check the progress of the disease and the patient was reduced to a most deviceable condition, he flesh served. to check the progress of the disease and the patient was reduced to a most deplorable condition, he flesh seemed to be separated from the bones—the immense discharge from so many ut-

The public are cautioned not to pur cise in a carriage, and then again un able to leave her bed for several suc cessive mopths, until about five years fer she was first attacked with the increes ran awry, overturned the car ringe threw her out, and caused compound fracture of the hip. Under this accumulation of misery and su! fering she lingered two years Her bones and integuments were laid bare arge pieces of the remaining flesh she had were constantly sloughing out and her situation was wretched and purable beyond comparison, cheered by no ray of liope, doomed to wear a way a miserable existence, and hourly wishing for death. She was told by some of her friends that Swaim's Pa some of her friends that Swaim's Panacea would, if any thing could relieve her. Mrs. Applegate consenter to remove, and did remove to Pinladelphia; this removal, was with difficulty that the state of the panacean state o accomplished, and she remained, as you may recollect, under your evre for about two weeks Being at the end of that time convalescent, she returned home It is impossible to express the n the minds of all who had seen her furing the seven years of her suffer

She was soon, to general admi-ration, restored to perfect health Thus, Sir, by the use of your Pana cea, which is acknowledged to be one of the richest gifts bestowed on suffer ing humanity—this unfortunate woman was restored to health and use tulness. Three years have elaps d since Mrs A was cured, since that time she has become the happy me ther of a daughter, and a finer or healthier infant I never beheld.
